In submitting this Catalogue of Peals of Bells from the Foundry, we beg warmly to acknowledge the support and the kind recommendations which we continue to receive, and soliciting a continuance of such confidence, beg to state that our attention is exclusively given to the casting of Bells and the manufacture of their Fittings and Frames, everything being made on these Premises.

Church Bells are made of one quality, from Copper and Tin ; the latter being somewhat less than a fourth of the whole weight. The value of the two metals was nearly identical during the four years ending with 1879, but latterly Copper has been depreciated far more than Tin.

The comparative prices of merchantable quality being—

	Copper.	Tin.
1st March, 1882	... 69/- per cwt.	... 116/- per cwt.
,, 1883	... 70/- ,,	... 97/- ,,
,, 1884	... 61/- ,,	... 87/- ,,
,, 1885	... 52/- ,,	... 85/- ,,
Melting point	... 1196°	... 235°
Specific gravity	... 8·9	... 7·3
Chemical affinity	63·5	... 118

The major portion of the price of Bells is represented by the first cost of the metal, and as Bells suffer no appreciable loss in weight by corrosion from exposure to the air, this value is never lost, but is fully allowed for again when the Bells have to be replaced.

The present prices of Copper are the lowest on record.

A Peal is augmented by the addition of new Trebles, and sometimes by a larger Tenor also, in which case one of the existing Bells is replaced by another half a note different in tone.

For Striking the Four Quarters and Hour the Bells employed are—

In a Peal of 10 Bells the Treble, 2nd, 3rd, 6th and Tenor
„ 8 „ 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 7th „

In the former case the interval between the 4th Quarter Bell and the Hour Bell is an octave, in the latter a fifth.

Only two Quarters besides the Hour can be struck on the Bells of a smaller Peal. The Treble, 3rd and Tenor Bells being then used.

The necessary connection with the Clock is made by the Clockmakers, who require to know the weights of the Bells.

Bell Frames and Fittings are all of the best materials and made by hand labour. English Oak is generally used for the former, but we recommend Teak for India.

Care is necessary on the part of the Steeple Keeper to keep the Gudgeons and Bearings well lubricated and to screw up the nuts of the Fittings quite evenly, or the Bells may be thrown out of the level.

We refer to page 4 for Form of Contract, showing also present quotations, and to page 5 for pro forma Invoice with cost of Chiming Apparatus, and for calculation of Freight and Shipping Charges.

Restoring Bells and Fittings. A considerable portion of our business comprises the Recasting of Old Bells (full value being allowed for the old metal), Turning, Rehanging and Tuning Bells, and replacing or repairing Bell Frames and Fittings. As such restorations differ in every case, the usual course is for us first to be permitted to visit the Church to estimate the cost, and when favored with instructions our best care is given to bring the Bells again into ringing order, as promptly as possible.

LATIN LEGENDS.

Bell Legends from about the 14th to 17th Centuries, mostly taken from bells sent to the Whitechapel foundry, to be recast or attuned to new bells.

Some of the ancient bells were beautifully lettered, the legend being arranged in one line round the top of bell, commencing with a cross. Very few early bells were dated.

ENGLISH LEGENDS.

Legends from 16th to 19th Centuries.

O God let all the people praise Thee.

O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts!

O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise.

Praise God upon the loude symbals.

Come let us sing unto the Lord.

One mediator between God and man, Christ Jesus.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord.

O ye Spirits and souls of the righteous bless ye the Lord.

Before Him lowly fall.

Our hope is in the Lord.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Watch and pray.

Jesu fulfil with Thy good grace,
All that we beckon to this place.

When you hear me for to toll,
Then pray to God to save the soul.

First I call you to God's word,
And at last unto the Lord.

When I ring, God's praises sing,
When I toll, pray heart and soul.

When I do call, come serve God all.

Let my sound move thee to God's glory.

I will sound and resound to Thy people with my sweet voice to call them to Thy word.

We celebrate the auspicious morn,
On which the Son of God was born.

O Lord accept this Bell of mee,
To call Thy people unto Thee.

For mercies undeserved this peal is raised,
So may Thy name O God through Christ be praised.

It joyeth me much
To go to God's Church.

Sacred to God on high, and in this Temple rais'd,
May holy sounds from me be heard, and He be prais'd.

I will be glad and much rejoyce on Thee O God most hie,
And make my songs extol Thy name above the starry skie.

All service tyme I sound, and at the deathe of men,
To serve your God, and well to dye, remember then.

May our tone so sound on the ear of man on earth, as to bring him to his Father in heaven.

Lord let the folk below, resound in living song,
Thy praise, as we do now with iron tongue.

May God bless all.
Whom I do call.

Treble	Bell—	Blessing
2nd	„	Glory
3rd	„	Wisdom
4th	„	Thanksgiving
5th	„	Honour
6th	„	Power
7th	„	Might
Tenor	„	Unto our God for ever and ever.

All men who hear my mournful sound,
Repent before you lye in ground.

I ring to sermon with a lusty boom,
That all may come, and none may stay at home.

I to the Church the living call,
And to the grave I summon all,
Pray attend to what I give,
That so you may for ever live.

Sometimes joy, sometimes sorrow,
Marriage to day, and death to morrow.

I sound to bid the sick repent,
In hope of life when breath is spent.

I toll the funeral knell,
I hail the festal day;
The fleeting hours I tell,
And summon all to pray.

I call the living, mourn the dead,
I tell when days and years are sped,
For grief and joy, for prayer and praise,
To heaven my tuneful voice I raise.

When men in Hymen's bands unite,
Our merry peals produce delight,
But when death goes his weary rounds,
We send forth sad and solemn sounds.

May all I summon to the grave,
The blessings of a well spent life receive.

I sweetly toll when men doth call,
To taste on food that feeds ye sole.

My roaring sound doth notice give,
That men cannot here alwaies live.

When souls are from their bodies torn,
'Tis not to die, but to be born.

We take no note of time, but from its loss.

When of departed hours I toll the knell,
Instruction take, and use the future well.

Oblige me not to call in vain.

My sounding voice, time's passing hour proclaims,
O'er Salop's town, and Severn's fertile plains.

I sound aloud from day to day,
My sound hath praise, and well it may.

May all in truth and harmony rejoice,
To honour Church and Queen with heart and voice.

May England's coast the pride of commerce be,
And Cambria's pride, be always to be free !

In wedlock's bands all ye who join,
With hands your hearts unite;
So shall our tuneful tongues combine,
To laud the nuptial rite.

Prosperity attend all England's shore,
Let Shrewsbury flourish, now and evermore.

Possessed of deep and sonorous tone
This belfry king sits on his throne ;
And when the merry bells go round,
Adds to, and mellows every sound.
So in a just and well-poised state,
Where all degrees possess just weight,
One greater power, one greater tone,
Is ceded to improve their own.

The bride and groom we greet in holy wedlock join'd.
Our sounds are emblems of hearts in love combined.

We greet the bridal, and the birthday feast,
We speed the soul, from fleshy bonds released,
To that long home, where grief and sin have ceased.

Faith, hope, and grace,
Attend this place.

May our sweet chimes,
Mark happy times.

I ring at six to let men know,
When too and from their worke to go.

My gentle note shall lead the cheerful sound,
Peace to this Parish, may good will abound.

When victory crowns the public weal,
With glee we give the merry peal.

God save the Church, our Queen and realme.
And send us peace in Christ. Amen.

This has been caused by my having been unsuccessful in two or three attempts to procure the assembly of the Committee, but last night a meeting was held and I now hasten to settle the matter. Before concluding I wish also to thank you for your courtesy to myself in connection with the matter. I feel sure we shall never regret having placed the work in the hands of your firm.
